

CANNABIS CAN HARM BRAIN DEVELOPMENT IN YOUTH

The brain isn't fully developed until about age 25. Cannabis use during the stage of brain development can have long term effects on attention, memory, and learning.

#STRONGERNH

THE PARTNERSHIP OFFERS:

Accurate and up-to-date INFORMATION about alcohol,

tobacco and
other substances
to inform your decisions and the
conversations you
have with others.

Every day ACTIONS you can take

in your home,
school, community
or worksite to prevent substance
misuse and
promote wellness.

CONNECTION

to substance
misuse
prevention
professionals,
activities and
resources.

STRONGERNH.ORG

